

Asia Pacific Association of Allergy, Asthma and Clinical Immunology

APAAACI Committee on Immunodeficiency

Chairman:

Amir Hamzah Abdul Latiff (Malaysia)

Co-chair:

Yu-Lung Lau (Hong Kong)

International advisors:

Richard Sorenson (United States)

Members:

Narissara Suratannon (Thailand)

Woei Kang Liew (Singapore)

Pamela Lee (Hong Kong)

Mohd Azri Zainal Abidin (Malaysia)

Le Thi Minh Huong (Vietnam)

Fatima Johanna T. Santos-Ocampo (Philippines)

Dina Muktiari (Indonesia)

Lokman Mohd Noh (Malaysia)

Wasu Kamchaisatian (Thailand)

Objectives:

To develop education programs and promote evidence-based best clinical practice in primary immunodeficiency diseases

Upcoming projects:

- 1) Survey of current use of immunoglobulin replacement therapy (IRT) in Asia-Pacific countries for both IGIV and IGSC
- 2) Survey of primary immunodeficiencies associated with allergic diseases in Asia-Pacific region

Resources:

Funding from industry involved in plasma-derived products

Timelines:

Dec 2019 - Mar 2020 : Electronic survey (in collaboration with APSID)

Mar 2020 - May 2020 : Analysis of survey and preparation of results for publication in June 2020 issue of AP Allergy

Dec 2019 - Oct 2020 : Electronic survey of allergic diseases with associated PID (in collaboration with national allergy societies of Asia-Pacific and APSID)

Oct 2020 - Dec 2020: Analysis of survey and preparation of results for publication in January 2021 issue of AP Allergy